Nonetheless, you acknowledge and agree to pay registry fees, as determined in their sole discretion, in order to reinstate a domain. 5.0 – SERVICES

Our Domain Name suppliers are an accredited registrar with the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers ("ICANN") for Top Level Domain Names ("TLDs") (i.e. .com, .net, .org, etc.). ICANN oversees registrations and other aspects of the TLDs. Domain Name registrations are not effective until the registry administrator puts them into effect. Domain Name registrations are only for limited terms, terms which end on the expiration date.

For Domain Names which are created as a new registration out of the available namespace, the term begins on the date the Domain Name registration is acknowledged by the applicable registry; for Domain Names registrations which were not returned to the available namespace, the term begins on the date the previous registrant's Domain Name registration was acknowledged by the applicable registry.

7.0 – CHANGES TO THIS AGREEMENT

This Agreement will change over time in response to changes in the requirements of governments and administrative bodies, legislation and changes in the industry. If, as a result of such a change to this Agreement, you no longer agree with its term, you agree that your exclusive remedy is to transfer your domain name registration services to another registrar or request the Company to cancel your domain name registration and/or other Services you have with us. Should you elect to cancel the Agreement with the Company, you will not receive a refund for any fees you may have paid to the Company.

If you continue to use the Services after a change in this Agreement or Service(s), your continued use of the Service(s) indicated your consent to the changes.

8.0 – PAYMENTS

The Customer or User agrees to pay the Company in advance, in order for the Service to be rendered. Subsequent payments are due on the anniversary date of their respective plans term. The Customer or User agree that until and unless they notify us using the proper cancellation request system within our Client Area, all Services delivered to the Customer by the Company, are considered active, billable, and shall be billed on a recurring basis. The Customer also agrees that, for all quarterly or annual term schedules, recurring charges and renewals that are not cancelled at least 30 days before the next renewal date are considered active and billable. It is their responsibility to ensure that their payment and client information is up to date and that all invoices are paid on time. The Customer is solely responsible for any charges made against any of their Payment Methods or Online Payment Accounts at any time and the Company reserves the right to bill their payment information, such as credit card or other payment information, we have on file. We are not responsible for any charges, costs or fees raised by the Customer or User's bank because of their Account being invoiced.

9.0 – EXPIRATION AND RENEWAL OF SERVICE(S)

(a) You acknowledge that it is your responsibility to keep your own records and to maintain your own reminders regarding when your domain name registration or other Services are set to expire. However, ICANN requires, pursuant to its Expired Registration Recovery Policy ("ERRP") that our suppliers follow certain procedures to notify the Company, who in turn notify you, in advance that renewal fees are due. Pursuant to the ERRP, notifications will be sent to the subject of the expiring domain name twice before the expiration date, once approximately one month before the subject domain's expiration date and again approximately one week before the subject domain's expiration date. The renewal reminder shall consist of an email message sent to the registered domain holder's email address. The company and our suppliers reserve the option, but not the obligation, to send additional renewal reminder notices to any other email addresses associated with the expiring domain, including, but not limited to, the email address of the expiring domain's account holder. Should these fees go unpaid, your Services will expire or be cancelled. Payment must be made by credit card or such other method as we may allow or require from time to time. If you select automatic renewal of the Service(s), we may attempt to renew the Service(s) a reasonable time before expiration, provided you have sufficient balance in your Client Area Account. You acknowledge and agree that, while we are not required to, we may contact you with a request to update your account information in the event that an attempted transaction is not processed successfully.

(b) You acknowledge that it is your responsibility to keep your billing information up to date. You acknowledge and understand that, as part of its management of user registrations, the Company sends out periodic notices to Customers, reminding them that they must include current, correct and complete information in their Client
